1. Rationale

The life and sustainability of an institution depends on the quality of education the students receive and how well they perform after graduation in the real world. The interpersonal and communications skills that complement the technical skills a graduate possesses are vital to his/her success in a highly connected and integrated world.

DU is keen to engaging students in extracurricular activities from which they derive the soft skills that put them in a better competitive position. An effective University platform to allow extracurricular activities is the existence of students’ clubs. By organizing clubs activities students will have a chance to: Develop relationships and strengthen the bond with their fellow students, faculty, and community at large; gain self confidence and experience personal victories; Acquire interpersonal, communications, teamwork, leadership, presentation, debate, and organizational skills; enhance their inner strengths and explore their creative capacities; develop self awareness of contemporary community issues such as the environment, health, safety, education, and more.

This policy establishes the framework for clubs formation and the rules that regulates pursuant of activities.

2. Policy

1. A group of students who share common interests have the right to petition the University Council to form a club and pursue related activities.

2. Forming a club and pursuing related activities must satisfy related Omani Laws and MOHE’s rules and regulations.

3. A group of students must first develop a complete plan of the club and related activities and submit it to the University Council for approval.

4. All club activities must conform to the religious principles, cultural preferences, and moral standards of the Omani Society.

5. The types of clubs allowed shall be limited to: Athletics, cultural, social, scientific, and recreational.

6. Clubs activities include: organize cultural and sports competitions, publish newsletters and pamphlets, wage awareness campaigns, and organize seminars, lecture series, field trips, and research.

7. A club must attain pre-approval of any proposed planned activity before it is executed.

8. If a club carries out an activity without obtaining prior approval from the University Council shall result in automatic club suspension and may result in disciplinary actions against involved individuals.

3. Procedure to Form a Club

To attain approval for a club at DU the following procedure should be followed:
1. Prepare a proposal to form a club. The Proposal shall include the following information:
